Floating Over The Imperial Palace of China.

Poyal Occupants Skipped Out When Pekin Fell Into the Hands of the Allies.

Washington, Aug. 22.—A dispatch from Admiral Remy at Che Foo announces that the American troops were the first to enter the imperial city of Pekin and were attacking the forbidden city. The morning of the 19th the Sixth cavalry and about 400 English and Japanese dispersed about 1,000 Boxers eight miles outside of Tien Tsin. About 100 Chinese were killed and five Americans wounded. Gen. Chaffee's losses have been six killed and thirty wounded in two days fighting. The forbidden city is the inner enclosure of the imperial city of Pekin.

The foreign envoys in Pekin, are proceeding to Tien-Tsin. The sacred city was entered August 15, two days earlier than Rear Admiral Bruce reported.

"The flags of the allies," says a Shanghai correspondent, "are now floating over the Imperial Palace. Street fighting, however, continues. Considerable assistance in the capture of Pekin was rendered by 4,000 armed native Christians. The legations were enabled to hold out by purchasing ammunition from the Chinese."

The relief party entered the city the night of the 14th.

The people in the legations were well but somewhat starved.

Minister Conger said: "They tried to annihilate us the day before you got in."

Prince Ching, president of Tsung Li Yamen, sent word that his officers had received orders to cease firing on us under pain of death.

"At 7 o'clock in the evening of the same day the Chinese opened fire, and this continued all day."

"If the relieving column had not arrived when it did, we should probably have succumbed."

"The Americans lost seven marines killed and fifteen wounded; and one child died."

"The whole movement is purely a governmental one. The Boxers are only a pretense, having no guns."

"The confidential advisor of the empress was the leader of the imperial troops."

"In eleven days over two thousand shells fell among us."

"The imperial family left four days ago for Shan Si province."

"It is estimated that the strength of the Pekin garrison was 10,000 men."

"The legation was urged to leave the city under an escort of Chinese troops, but refused, fearing treachery."

"The Chinese in the imperial city made a stout resistance."

"After shelling them the allies succeeded in forcing the gate and entering the city about noon on the 15th."

"The American loss in the action was the greatest."

"Capt. Reilly of the Fifth artillery was killed."

"The total casualties during the siege of the legations were 67 killed and 120 wounded."

HOT SPELL ENDS.

Welcome Change Comes Wednesday Evening.

A long drawn out hot spell, that began early in August, came to an end on the evening of the 22nd when the mercury dropped to a more respectable point. The change was not a cold spell by any means, but the excessive heat was succeeded by ordinary summer weather. During the three weeks of torrid weather, the mercury did not fall any day to go into the nineties and several days it was over 100 degrees.

YOUTSEY SICK.

And His Case Goes Over Until October.

Three of the Assassins Granted Bail For $3,000 Each—Motion For New Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 22.—The trial of Henry E. Youtsey, charged with the murder of Gov. Goebel, was to-day continued by Judge Cantrill until October 2, the beginning of the term of the Scott county Circuit Court, Cols. L. J. Crawford and R. W. Nelson, the prisoner's counsel, presented the affidavit of Dr. W. H. Coffman, in which he swore that Youtsey was suffering from a severe case of typhoid-malarial fever and was not physically able to stand the strain of a trial. Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin read the affidavit and said that he would not force the prisoner into a trial and asked that an order be entered continuing the case until the October term of the court.

Three Other Cases Continued.

Judge Cantrill allowed the order to be entered, and instructed the Sheriff to discharge the special venire. Then by an agreement between the attorneys of both sides the cases of Holland Whitaker, Capt. John Davis and "Tallow Dick" Combs were also continued until in October. Upon the motion of Mr. Franklin, Whitaker, Davis and Combs were granted bail in the sum of $3,000 each for their appearance in the Scott county circuit court October 2.

Motion For a New Trial.

Caleb Powers, through his attorneys, filed his application for a new trial this morning, and set forth twenty-one reasons why he believes he is entitled to a second hearing. The case has not yet been passed on.

Davis Released on Bond.

Davis gave bond into this afternoon, Judge James Finnell, of Georgetown, and Col. L. J. Crawford, of Newport, becoming his surety. The prisoner was glad to get out into the open air and left to-night to join his wife and children in Frankfort. Mr. Kinkead says that Whitaker and Combs will secure bondsmen to-morrow.

COTTAGE BURNED.

Fire Destroyed the Residence of Mrs. Jane Pyle.

A small frame cottage at 1227 South Virginia street, occupied by Mrs. Jane E. Pyle, was burned about noon Tuesday and entirely destroyed together with most of its contents. The fire was first discovered in the roof and burned so rapidly that the department found but little to save upon its arrival. The origin of the fire is not known. The building was owned by A. W. Pyle and was erected only a few years ago at cost of $600. It was insured for $350. Mrs. Pyle lost a large part of her household effects, upon which there was no insurance.

Jifson Warfield, aged eleven years, son of Mr. A. G. Warfield, was injured in a runaway accident Tuesday night. He was driving a pony to a cart and the animal ran away on South Main street, throwing the driver out and dislocating one shoulder. Other hurts in the way of cuts and bruises were sustained.

Gov. Beckham and McCrery to Start the Campaign Sept. 3.

Democratic Speakers in Every County in the State on That Date.

Louisville, Ky., August 20.—The Democratic State Campaign Committee to day announced that Gov. Beckham and ex-Gov. McCrery will open the campaign at Henderson on Monday, September 3. It is expected there will be speaking in every county in the state on that day and the campaign will be kept warm from that time on.

The exposure of the Republican expenditure of state money for Taylor's private guard after he had been deposed as governor, has made a very marked impression over the state. The Democrats are in fighting trim and with thorough organization expect to win a notable victory in November.

The Woman's Page in the Average Newspaper.

Most of the large papers have a Woman's Page, but possibly not in one instance is the woman who edits it at liberty to exercise her own judgment. One individual on a certain New York daily is summoned every few weeks into the presence of the managing editor, who says: "You are putting too much woman suffrage and too many strong-minded women on your page." "You tell me to keep a record of everything that women are doing," she answers, "and it is these who are doing the progressive work of the world." "Well, keep woman suffrage off of that page," is the reply. Another woman, one of the best writers in the country, was given the position of Sunday editor on a big daily, and long ago, with this admonition: "Now, we know your tricks. Remember, if one line of woman suffrage goes in, you go out."

The writer of this article was requested to prepare a series of twelve articles on the most prominent women lawyers, doctors, ministers, lecturers, organizers, etc., "with not a flavor of woman suffrage in the series!" As a matter of course every one of those who were necessarily selected was an ardent advocate of the enfranchisement of women, and it was due to this long agitation that they held such positions. To prepare those sketches without reference to this fact was to stultify the writer, and offend the subjects and all who believed with them on this question. Nevertheless, on a business point of view, it was impossible to refuse.

At another time, when about to accept an important editorial position the managing editor made the significant remark: "Please remember that this paper does not believe in woman suffrage." During two years of editorial writing of course this subject was mentioned, and toward the close of this period a letter was received from a woman's organization which said: "When you became one of the editors of this paper we were filled with delight, for we felt that now our readers would hear something of our cause, but your absolute silence has been a bitter disappointment. Possibly you may think to curry the favor of men by this action, but you have lost your friends among women."

At present a masculine editor-in-chief decides absolutely what women desire to read. He employs either women to put this material in shape, because he thinks they can do it better than men, but he trusts their judgment only to a certain extent in selecting it. Until women themselves acquire positions of control on newspapers, or until men can be persuaded to take a different view of women's taste in this matter, we shall continue to have only the very lightest reading on the Woman's Page. There is, however, no department which has shown so marked an evolution during the last ten years.

A great deal of excellent matter of special interest is gradually finding its way into the Woman's Page. Time will doubtless come when its woman editor will not wholly hate it, and herself, because she is held responsible for it. At present The Sun is the only metropolitan daily paper in the world which has a regular department devoted to the enfranchisement of women. Its assertion is made in the hope of calling out information if "there are others."

To Take Up W. H. Culton's Case—Colonel Stone Will

Be Asked to Explain His Clerk's Theft and His Own Course.

Frankfort, Ky., August 20.—The Franklin State grand jury, which is to be impeached here at the opening of the September term of the Circuit Court, will be asked to look into the charge that made by former State Auditor Stone against W. H. Culton, the chief clerk of the claim department of that office, and will also be asked to look into the conduct of Col. Stone himself. It is the duty of a public official to protect the state from the acts of such a person as he claims Culton to be and to have him punished if guilty. Stone was not allowed to tell while on the witness stand at Georgetown, he protected a thief from the law, but he will be asked to tell the grand jury why on the public records he used the words "for-forsers" in returning that $1,141 into the State Treasury instead of "for theft" as it should have been written.

PRESIDENT VALENTINE

Of The Wells-Fargo Express Company Declares For Bryan

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20.—John J. Valentine, president of the Wells Fargo Express Company, a strong supporter of President McKinley and heavy contributor to the McKinley-Hanna campaign fund four years ago, has declared for Bryan and Stevenson.

The following letter was given out at Democratic national headquarters. It was written to the convention of anti-imperialists at Indianapolis, but was received too late to be read at that gathering: "Believing," said he, "that between the claim of freedom, 'that all men are entitled to equal political rights,' and the dogma of tyranny that 'might make right,' there is no middle ground, therefore, whatever the independents may do, I favor the indorsement of Bryan and Stevenson and straight support of the Democratic nominees."

As head of one of the great express corporations of the country and employer of thousands of men in the Western, middle Western and Pacific coast states, President Valentine is considered by Democratic leaders a factor in the campaign and his declaration for the Democratic nominees is expected to have considerable effect.

On The Republican Party As It Was And Is.

He Announces to Bryan Without Any Ifs or Ands in a Rousing Speech.

"I helped create the Republican party, a party at that time of justice and principle and honesty. I now believe it is a party of injustice and despotism and I will help to destroy it. And how? There is but one available means, and you know what that is, I am for Bryan. (Tremendous applause.) I am for Bryan in spite of what he may believe concerning the currency or finance of the country. This question to which we invite the country's attention is a question of life or death to the republic."

"If you have not been deceived in a man, and he promises to do what is right, you are not to blame if you try him. Mr. Bryan, to me, stands in that position. Even his enemies say nothing against him as a man. In this very city he has made the most explicit promises to pursue that policy which we advocate. I am disposed to trust him. If I look on the other side, in my opinion, President McKinley has promised several things and then done several things that do not run in harmony with his promises. But now he pledges himself to pursue a policy which we condemn; if we vote to support him in that policy we have no right to complain. I believe Bryan is as honest in his purpose to redeem this country from degradation and its policy of imperialism as any man who sits in this audience. Therefore, for one, I am in favor of supporting Mr. Bryan in spite of his beliefs in things concerning which he has not my approval.—Ex-Gov. Brewster, of Massachusetts in his speech before the Liberty Congress in Indianapolis.

Another Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had much experience with medicine. Last summer my daughter died of the diphtheria in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw in an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and so I got a bottle. It proved to be one of the very best remedies we ever had in the house. It saved my daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what a life-saver medicine it is. Had I known it at first I would have saved much anxiety at my daughter much suffering. Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Loyalty.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Copies of Manila papers received at the War Department contain a copy of a letter purporting to be from a person claiming to be Aguinaldo who states that the Filipino chief does not take advantage of the amnesty proclamation because some time ago he gave orders to his followers to break up into guerrilla bands.

The amnesty order excepts those who violated the laws of war, and it states that Aguinaldo fears that he would be in the excepted class should he undertake to surrender under the amnesty proclamation.

The letter is dated at Batangas. The letter is said to be the present provisional headquarters of Aguinaldo. It states however, that Aguinaldo never stays more than one night in a place, and only a few hours in any one location. He allows no one to come near him except his most intimate personal friends.

Records Show Expensive Trips Made.

Much Money Paid Out For Labor And Clerical Work.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 20.—When State Inspector Hines gets well into the investigation of the office of the Adjutant General under the administration of Dan K. Collier, which investigation he begins tomorrow, he will find that that administration was an expensive one to the taxpayers of the State long before the Taylor reign of terror. A cursory examination of the military records in the office of the State Auditor shows it, and a close inspection will bring it out more clearly. One item that promises to mount up pretty high is the expense accounts of the Adjutant General and his assistant, Col. Forrester, on their trips to Washington city. During the administration extending over four years, he is quite a number of these trips were made, and the present officials can not quite make out the object of them or of what benefit they were to the department or to the guard service. Another noticeable thing about these trips is that on each one of them the Adjutant General's bill was $150, while that of his assistant never dropped under $125. During the administration of Col. Stone as State Auditor, that official often complained of the size of the expense accounts of the Assistant Adjutant General, but they seem to have been paid in every instance by him.

Another item likely to strike the inspector as one of considerable size will be that "for labor" at the State arsenal and for "clerical services" in the department. The beneficiaries in these matters were for the most part William Berkeley, of Lancaster, and A. C. Roberts, of this city.

These and many other little matters to be covered by the inspector's report will show that these officials acquired expensive tastes, and spent the money of the people even before Fugitive Taylor came into office as Executive.

The inspector will begin with the accounts and affairs of the office during the reign of terror, and will take up other wrong expenditures of money afterward. The papers let with Auditor Coulter by Mr. Collier last week were turned over to him today. The inspector's first step was to have the check for $1,750 presented by Collier certified by the bank.

McKinley's Supine Acquiescence to Mandates of Trust Magnates Disgusts the People.

What chance has Bryan of being elected? Naturally the editor of a Democratic newspaper will say that he has a great chance, whether he really thinks so or not. That is his business.

Upon this occasion we will mention some classes of people whom we believe will vote for Bryan this year. If you doubt it ask some of them.

Ask the drummer who he will vote for. A vast number of them have lost their positions because of combinations which permit of one traveling man doing the work of several.

McKinley prosperity has hurt them.

He will tell you that he voted for McKinley four years ago. He is going to vote for Bryan this year. He can tell you why, too. He can talk. The same brain and tongue that make him a good drummer make him a good Bryan worker.

The drummer is not only going to vote for Bryan. That is not his speed. He is going to work for him. He is scattered all through this big country and he will come pretty near equaling the McKinley campaign orators in number.

The drummer is going to be quite a factor in the campaign this fall.

Ask the man who keeps the cigar store who he is going to vote for. He voted for McKinley last year.

He is going to vote for Bryan. He has to buy his goods from the tobacco trust. He can't make any money. The trust gobbles the profits of the business.

The cigar stand is a great place for political discussion. Men congregate there and talk about men, conditions and issues. The keeper of the store is looked up to as a man pretty well posted. He has much influence in the discussions. His views of Bryan and trusts are certain to set his friends thinking.

Ask the grocer who he is going to vote for. Or the man who keeps the little hardware store. Ask any of the store keepers who are pinched by the trust.

You will find that very few of them intend to vote against Mr. Bryan.

The small dealer who was driven out of business by the gobbling trusts, or who is so squeezed by the rapacious monopolists that he makes but a scanty living will tell you that he is going to vote against Mr. McKinley.

Ask any of the men who have been thrown out of employment by the trusts who they are going to vote for.

They are going to vote for Bryan. They will tell you that they are very sorry that they voted for McKinley four years ago.

The extraordinary growth and boldness of the trusts during the past few years will make those injured and affected vote for relief. These gigantic combinations have gulped up the small dealer; thrown vast numbers of people out of employment, and the majority of them are bleeding the people.

When man is in danger he seeks safety; and when he is suffering he wants relief.

Mr. McKinley has had a chance to save and relieve the people from dangerous and criminal trusts, but he has failed to do so.

His administration has been a trust incubator. It has been most prolific of greed and criminal combinations. It has hatched out all the worst of capitalist schemes to bleed the people.

The man to appeal to is Bryan. All the trusts are opposed to him. They will use all their power to defeat him.

That fact is one of the best things that can be said in favor of Mr. Bryan.

The trusts are against Mr. Bryan.

One of the worst things that can be shown against McKinley in the trusts will support him for re-election.

The trusts are for Mr. McKinley. And the trusts are only one issue in the campaign—certainly a most important one.

But there are other important issues.

Don't you think it looks good for Bryan on the trust issue?—Syracuse Telegram.

Have you watched its marvelous growth? If not, The Weekly Enquirer wants to study the strides it has made. The first census of the United States was taken in 1790. Since then very succeeding years. The result has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Year.	Population.
1790	3,929,891	1880	51,455,371
1800	5,308,022	1890	62,946,291
1810	7,260,120	1900	76,155,783
1820	9,637,881
1830	12,866,052
1840	17,069,453
1850	23,191,876

Here you have the figures of a basis of calculation. The problem now is: What will be the population of the United States, excluding recent acquisitions. The result is usually announced in July of the census year.

The WEEKLY ENQUIRER is anxious to engage all in a study of their country. To this end it will distribute cash amounting to $55,000, for solutions received in July of the census year.

The United States Census, as follows:

To the nearest census record, $3,000.00
To the second, $1,000.00
To the third, $500.00
To the fourth, $250.00
To the fifth, $100.00
To the sixth, $50.00
To the seventh, $25.00
To the eighth, $10.00
To the ninth, $5.00
To the tenth, $2.50
To the eleventh, $1.00
To the twelfth, $0.50
To the thirteenth, $0.25
To the fourteenth, $0.10
To the fifteenth, $0.05
To the sixteenth, $0.02
To the seventeenth, $0.01
To the eighteenth, $0.005
To the nineteenth, $0.002
To the twentieth, $0.001

2107 cash presents amounting to $25,000.00

In case of a tie, money equally divided.

Every guess on the above proposition must be made by a year's subscription to THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER. You can guess as often as you care to include subscription price to the WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

This contest will close a month before the result of the census will be known and officially certified by the Director of the United States Census at Washington, D. C.

Subscription price for THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER (including guess) is only $1.00 a year. Eleven copies and eleven guesses for $10.00. For full particulars see WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

The strongest possible production of a very questionable play, and if it is acting rather than morals that attract rather than Mrs. Langtry is certainly entitled to the success she is achieving.

To say that either Irving or Miss Terry presented the theater-going public with a better production than they gave their New York audiences would be untrue, but it does not consider it untrue to say that they have shown an additional practice. Young Lawrence Irving, for one, needed the training that he secured during the first part of his career, and it is to his company to enable him to produce the faultless presentation of the characters which he portrayed. He is a strong, virile, and capable actor, and every night of experience under his father's tutelage added to his strength.

Irving's Chicago engagement was a really financial success. Several five thousand dollars was piled into the money tills of the box office during his short stay in the lake city, and it was well worth the promise Chicago another opportunity of seeing him and his company before his return to England. The return visit will be a very interesting one.

But with all these bright and shining lights of the eastern and European stage playing on the boards of Chicago, the people of that city are still very much in love with the "great grays" of the stage, an almost unequalled reception, it was not at the expense of the new stars, and the brilliant presence each season. Of this class none stands higher than does Alice Nelson and the superb company with which she is associated, the "Pearl Girl." The brilliant success that Miss Nelson and her company have achieved this season is due entirely to the efforts they have put forward by a play that has nothing to attract; that but for the efforts of a brilliant company would fall flat, but sides. The women are equally attractive and successful, and since the finale of two of the acts were written for the women, the success of the chorists are proved nightly."

New York is seeing all manner of minor attractions these days of Lent, and it is not probable that they will ever before have been presented in New York but have had long runs on the road of the one-night stand characters. The first of these has been seen this season in Gotham. Among the new ones to Gotham may be mentioned "The Pride of Jennico," "The Carpetbaggers," "The Girl of the Year," "Mrs. B. O'Shaughnessy," "Wine, Lady, Wine," and "The Girl of the Year."

The first of these is a stirring love tale with the usual tragic features and happy ending, and it is a play that has never appeared all over any one place and the world is none the worse when they disappear.

The "Carpetbaggers" is a story of Oglethorpe, Georgia, and is a drama. It had quite a run on the road before reaching New York, and may be said to be the best of the four, unless an opportunity is made in favor of "Mamee Batterley."

This piece has a pretty Chicago setting, in which an officer of the United States army is stationed, but, though not very gracefully, it is a piece that calls for considerable talent to make it presentable, and it is only a play that is worth the notice. It is giving it careful handling.

Of the last one nothing need be said. Its name portrays it as an Irish farce of the broadest type.

MAJ. J. O. FERRELL'S

High School Will Open Next Monday August 27th.

The fall session of Maj. J. O. Ferrell's High School will begin next Monday, August 27th, and will be the first of the school openings. This select school for a limited number of pupils is now in its 28th year under Maj. Ferrell's management and its success in all these years is its highest testimonial. There are usually a dozen or more boarding pupils who board with the principal and about the same number of day pupils. The course is more advanced than the Public Schools and many boys who intend going to college attend this school to take a training or preparatory course. Two or three first honor men at Centre College within the last few years received their preparatory instruction under Maj. Ferrell. The last of these was Jas. A. McKennie, Jr., who graduated from Centre last year.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE.

Suit Over The Possession of Edgar Nave Wells.

A habeas corpus case was called in Judge Cansler's court yesterday, but the county judge requested city Judge Campbell to hear the case and the trial was in progress when we went to press.

The suit is over the possession of Edgar Nave alias Wells, a nine-year-old child. Seven years ago Mrs. Mary Nave, the wife of J. F. Wells, who adopted him and has raised him as her own child. Mrs. Nave now sues for the possession of the child. Edgar was not adopted according to the forms of law and hence the suit over his possession. The boy is very much attached to Mrs. Wells and appeared with her in the court room.

A Bride The Stake.

Miss Mary Johnson is the stake in the freest election bet ever made. Her home is in Haskell county, Kan. So is Howard's. Howard wants to marry the girl. Miss Johnson's father, J. B. Johnson, is for McKinley. Howard is an enthusiastic Bryanite. The two men had heated arguments. Mary was broken hearted because papa Johnson forbade Howard the house. Finally a compromise was agreed upon. If Bryan is elected, Howard is to have the girl. If McKinley is elected, Howard has agreed to give up his love and never see her again.

Kentucky blood was shed in the fighting in China. Private Adam Pasch, of Louisville, and Private Paschaly Smith, of Middlesboro, were wounded at Yang Tsun, August 6. Private Harvey Collins, of Williamstown, died August 15.

KILLED THE BRIDE.

Americans Massacre a Wedding Party in the Philippines.

Thomas W. Jones, private in Troop G, 11th Cavalry, U. S. V., writing from Santa Cruz, Philippine Islands, to his brother George Jones, in Washington, D. C., under date of June 27, describes a massacre of Filipinos in which he took part on June 25 and which he relates as quite in the line of his ordinary duties. He tells how 60 members of his regiment were ordered out to kill or capture a famous Filipino General, known to be living in the neighborhood. After some rough scouting, the General's house was located and the Americans crawled through the underbrush until they secured positions but a few yards distant. Then they discovered that they had unwittingly chanced upon a wedding. There was a large crowd present to take part in the festivities. Most of them, of course, were women and children, but there were about 75 men present who were armed. The Americans were ordered to fire a volley from ambush and then charge; which they did with terrible results.

"The scene that resulted was horrible," writes Private Jones. "On the ground near the house lay the body of the bride, whose brains had been blown out. The groom, who had received a bullet in the stomach, was lying near by in a dying condition. Twelve of the Filipinos had been killed and about the same number wounded. An elderly woman was shot through the leg and a little child had her arm shot off. 'But' adds Private Jones cheerfully, 'we got the old General all right and we burned the insurgent's quarters before we left.'"

"This is the kind of imperial civilization this Administration is patently bringing to the Filipinos; and probably Jones' letter is not an unfair description of the sort of warfare this great government is waging against these far away islanders (whose only crime is their love of liberty) in furtherance of 'the just responsibilities of our victories in the Spanish war.'"

It may also be remembered that the Imperial English troops found "good pig sticking" in South Africa.

PROSPERITY FIGURES.

How The Trusts Are Robbing The Farmers.

Here are a few of the reasons why the "plain people" are not inclined to meekly accept the inspired statements of the Trust organs and speakers showing what a natural, necessary and beneficent institution the Trust is:

It requires 50 per cent more wheat to buy a stone than it did in 1896.

It requires 20 bushels more corn to buy a wagon than it did in 1896.

It requires 100 per cent more corn or wheat to buy a crope kept than in 1875.

It requires twice as much corn to buy a coil of rope as in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent more grain to buy a plow than in 1896.

It requires 75 per cent more grain to buy a hoe, a rake or a shovel than in 1896.

A set of common wheels that cost $7 in '96, now cost $12.

The price of cultivators and other farm implements has gone up proportionately.

Galvanized barbed wire costs from $4 to $4.50 per hundred more than in 1896.

It requires forty per cent more corn or cotton to buy a pound of sugar than in 1896.

You have to pay 40 per cent more for glass than in 1896.

Freight rates have climbed back to the exorbitant figures which caused a popular revolt in legislation a few years ago.

The price of oil, coal, lumber, tools and hardware has gone up from 40 to 100 per cent.

And all these things have been done by trusts.

A trust robs you waking or sleeping, eating or drinking, working or playing, living or dying, and the Coffin Trust gets you in the end.

WAR TAXES.

Enormous and Useless Burden the People Have to Bear.

In an official communication to Chairman Richardson, under date of August 2, 1900, Hon. Lyman J. Gage, Secretary of the Treasury, says:

"The estimated cost of the war with Spain, including the Philippines, to June 30, 1900, is as follows: Army, $284,750,000; Navy, $79,500,000; Miscellaneous, including interest on war loan and payment of $20,000,000 to Spain, $30,750,000; Total $395,000,000.

"The Department is unable to separate the expenditures made for war purposes in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines."

The total amount collected from the people under the special War Revenue Act, up to July 1st, 1900, is $210,000,000.

The amount of the Spanish war loan is, in round numbers, $200,000,000.

The amount of GOLD in the Treasury is now somewhat in excess of $430,000,000. This is the largest sum in gold ever accumulated in the United States Treasury and exceeds the total expenses of the war by $35,000,000; and this is in GOLD ALONE, exclusive of the hundreds of millions of silver and paper money which has also accumulated in the Treasury.

Thus it is readily seen that the regular revenues of the Government during the past two years would have been sufficient to carry on our wars in Cuba and the Philippines entirely without the special war tax which is thus shown to have been wholly needless in the first place and a more than a gratuitous burden upon the people now.

Perhaps the monstrous injustice and injury inflicted by this tax will be better understood when it is stated that the Treasury Department statements show that the amount of this tax collected from the people from January 1st to July 1st, 1900, is $430,000,000. And this, too, with the enormous sum of $430,000,000 in gold was being hoarded into the Treasury.

Gov. Goebel's Will.

The last will and testament of the late Gov. William Goebel, of Covington, Ky., has just been opened at the Kenton county court-house by Arthur Goebel, brother of the deceased. Arthur Goebel, the executor, inherits all the property of the late Governor. The will was written in 1886.

Mrs. Jane Pyle, whose house was burned Tuesday, has rented a cottage from Mrs. J. P. Thomas.

Mrs. Pinkham

The one thing that qualifies a person to give advice on any subject is experience—experience creates knowledge.

No other person has so wide an experience with female ills nor such a record of success as Mrs. Pinkham has had.

Over a hundred thousand cases come before her each year. Some personally, others by mail. And this has been going on for 20 years, day after day and day after day.

Twenty years of constant success—think of the knowledge thus gained! Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman with such an experience, especially when it is free.

If you are ill get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, then write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

DISTURBED WORSHIP.

Crap Shooters Use Pistol to Shoots With.

Rev. J. L. Allensworth, county coroner, came very near having a Baptist church last Sunday. He went out to preach the funeral of the deceased pastor, Rev. Stephen Watt, and a shooting affair came up in the woods surrounding the church. It resulted from a game of craps and unknown parties opened fire on Lucien Davis. Nobody was hit. The coroner will prosecute the parties vigorously if he can find out who they were.

A FEW FINES

Police Court Matters Dull This Week.

But little business has been disposed of in Police court since last report.

Jord'a Baker was fined $5.00 and costs for drunkenness and $10 and costs for disorderly conduct and sent to the workhouse.

One offender was fined $10 and costs for breach of the peace. Another was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Still another was fined $5 and costs for profane language.

The Democratic campaign in Missouri was opened at Sedalia Tuesday with speeches by Adlai E. Stevenson and A. M. Dockery. The crowd was largest ever seen at Sedalia.

FINE FOR BATHING

In The Reservoir of the Water Company.

The County Board of Health is after the bathers with a sharpstick and will stop the bathing above the pumping station of the water works. Many boys, white and colored, have been in the habit of "going-in-washing" in the deep water above the dam and persisted in their sport in spite of the warnings of the water-works people. The matter was reported to Judge Cansler, and Dr. J. B. Jackson, of the Board of Health, was sent out to make an inspection. He found that the practice was not adding to the purity of the water that is used for drinking purposes by many families in the city.

Dr. Jackson authorizes the announcement that the penalty for contaminating drinking water is a fine of from $5 to $25 and that the law will be enforced against all persons who may be caught heretofore bathing above the pumping station.

NEW PRINCIPAL

Of The Colored Baptist College This Year.

The trustees of the colored Baptist college and normal school, located here, have secured the services of Prof. P. T. Frazier to succeed Prof. Shofner, who taught last year. The new professor will be assisted by his wife. He has recently been connected with Exeinstein Norton College, near Louisville. The new college building is 40x90 feet and has 27 rooms besides the chapel. It has been improved and newly painted for the fall session, which will begin Sept. 3. The college opened a year ago and had last session 130 pupils, most of them from out of town.

SERIOUS CHARGE

Lodged Against a Young Man Who Was Drunk.

Geo. W. Morris was arrested this week and had an examining trial in the police court, charged with shooting at H. M. Dalton Monday night. He was held over under his own bond of $200. Mr. Dalton was crossing "Billy Goat Hill" Monday night, returning from his quarry, when the offense is said to have been committed. It was due more to disorder than any real attempt to do violence, it is claimed, as the shots were fired while Morris was on a spree.

The Negroes to Organize.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 22.—Leading negroes of this city have become aroused to a sense of the real situation as regards the negro race, and an effort will be made to organize a colored Democratic club in this city that the colored voters may have an opportunity to bear matters political discussed.

He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by R. C. Hardwick.

PEPPER STREET CO.
Dear Sirs—I feel it my duty to write to you and let you know how much good your medicine has done for me. Twenty-three years ago I was taken with some kind of stomach trouble and I tried everything I heard of. They did me but little good. Three years ago I was taken with it on me and I got so poor and weak that I could hardly walk—couldn't work any. My husband received a book through the mail, advertising your medicine, and he sent our little boy to the drug store to get one of your ten-cent bottles. I began to use it. It is strange to say, but it's the truth, the second dose I took gave me lots of relief. I kept on using it for nearly a year and I am as strong as I was before and can do any kind of work. I recommend it to all for it seems to me it would cure anybody. I have gotten others to use it and they say Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has done them much good. God bless Dr. Caldwell and his medicine for doing me so much good. Yours Truly

PROJECTED CANAL

Connecting Tennessee and Warrior Rivers.

Birmingham (Ala.) correspondents Birmingham, Tenn., Enquirer: A movement has been set on foot looking to the construction of a canal to connect the Tennessee and Warrior rivers in this state. The connection to be made from a point near Guntersville, in the northeastern part of Alabama, by the way of Birmingham and in conjunction with the proposed Van Hoose canal from this city to a point on the Warrior about 30 miles north of Tuscaloosa. The federal government will be asked to undertake this work at the proper time. Some years ago a preliminary survey of the proposed waterway was made by the Major C. D. Fitzhugh, a prominent civil engineer of this state, and he reported the project entirely feasible. He has recently investigated the matter further, and is more than ever convinced of the practicality and importance of the canal. Mr. Underwood writes from Washington that just as soon as he secures an appropriation for the Van Hoose canal, and gets in on a continuing contract basis, he will urge the appropriation for the Tennessee river canal. The proposed Van Hoose canal is to extend from North lake, two miles north of Birmingham, to the Warrior river, a distance of about 40 miles. First, it is proposed to build it from McAdory, near Bessemer, to the Warrior by canalizing Valley creek. The government has already surveyed the route and Chief Engineer Russell, of the government works at Mobile, strongly urged the construction of the canal. He pointed out that with an all-water route from the Birmingham district to the gulf coal and iron and other products could be moved from this section to deep water for from 300 to 500 per cent. less cost than at present.

The Rev. Dr. D. Z. Sheffield, President of the North China College and Mission at Tung-chau, near Peking, was in America when the Boxer riots began, but immediately prepared to return to his post. Before sailing from San Francisco, late in June, he learned of the burning of his college. Dr. Sheffield left behind him the manuscript of an article which will appear in the September Century under the title of "The Influence of the Western World on China." As a result of the author's thirty years experience as a missionary, he is said to argue strongly against the dismemberment of the Middle Kingdom. Equally timely will be a paper by R. Van Bergen in the same number, on "The Revolution in China and its Causes." The fiction of the September magazine will include a characteristic story of about 20,000 words by John Luther Long—"The Prince of Illusion."

Card of Thanks.

I wish to return my thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly rescued the household effects of my mother, Mrs. Jane Pyle, when her house burned Tuesday. It was due to their prompt and friendly assistance that her loss was not a total one. I wish to say further that the very prompt response of the fire department is deserving of praise. Owing to the great distance from the station and the headway the fire had made when discovered, it was impossible to save the building, but the department did all that could have been done.
